

Dear Rowan Class

Well done to all of you who have already completed some of this term's homework tasks! I have been hugely impressed by your efforts, which really demonstrate how much you are enjoying our Egyptians topic!

I am setting you a specific homework task this week:

I would like you to create either:

- the cover of a book that you have recently enjoyed
- or
- a book review of a book you have read recently. You might want to use the attached frame sheet, or design your own.

I will be putting your finished work on display, either in our class library or in our reading display by the front door of school, so I am looking for really well- presented work.

Please bring your finished work to school by Wednesday.
I look forward to seeing what you have done!!

Have a lovely weekend!

Mrs Cook
